

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT4
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE: GRANT DINEHART LANGDON,

Respondent.

Case No. 1:20-PF-0002 (GTS)

PRE-FILING ORDER

On February 26, 2020, Grant Dinehart Langdon (“Respondent”) was ordered by the Court to, within fourteen (14) days, show cause as to why he should not be enjoined from filing any pleadings or documents of any kind (including motions) as a pro se plaintiff in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York without prior permission of the Chief Judge or his or her designee (except pleadings or documents in a case that is open at the time of the issuance of the Court’s Pre-Filing Order, until that case is closed). (Dkt. No. 1.) On March 4, 2020, Respondent submitted a 31-page document (complete with photographs and a personal essay) regarding the arrest and indictment of his son Frank Langdon for arson in 1987. (Dkt. No. 2.)

Even when construed with the utmost of special leniency, Respondent’s submission does not show the sort of cause required by the Court’s Order of February 26, 2020. (Compare Dkt. No. 1 with Dkt. No. 2.) Regardless of the sympathy that one might have for a father who tirelessly seeks to rectify what he sincerely believes to be an injustice to his son, Respondent has done nothing to persuade the Court that its findings in its Order to Show Cause were in error. Indeed, if anything, Respondent’s submission merely underscores his willingness to re-relitigate previously decided claims, burden the Court with repetitive material, and proceed without a good-faith expectation of prevailing. With due respect to Respondent, his abuse of this district court must come to an end.

As a result, for the reasons stated in the Court's Order to Show Cause, Respondent is permanently enjoined from filing any pleadings or documents of any kind (including motions) as a pro se plaintiff in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York without prior permission of the Chief Judge or his or her designee (except pleadings or documents in a case that is open at the time of the issuance of the Court's Pre-Filing Order, until that case is closed), subject to the requirements outlined below.

NOTICE TO PRO SE LITIGANT: FAILURE TO STRICTLY COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OUTLINED BELOW MAY SUBJECT YOU TO FURTHER SANCTIONS, INCLUDING THE DISMISSAL OF YOUR COMPLAINT/PETITION OR STRIKING OF YOUR SUBMISSION.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), Respondent is permanently enjoined from filing any pleadings or documents of any kind (including motions) as a pro se plaintiff in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York without prior permission of the Chief Judge or his or her designee (except pleadings or documents in a case that is open at the time of the issuance of the Court's Pre-Filing Order, until that case is closed),¹ subject to the requirements outlined below; and it is

(1) that the pleading or claims Respondent wishes to present, or the relief he seeks, has never before been raised by him and disposed of by any federal or state court and are not, to the best of his knowledge, barred by the doctrines of collateral estoppel or res judicata;

(2) that (a) to the best of his knowledge the claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith, (b) they are well-grounded in fact and warranted by existing law or a good-faith argument for the extension, modification or reversal of existing law, and (c) the lawsuit is not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation, or to avoid the execution of a valid judgment;

(3) that the claim or claims are not meant to harass any judicial officer, attorney, individual, organization or entity; and

(7) whether the pleading and/or document(s) meet such other reasonable requirements established by the Court; and it is further
